

Algilez International Language

The Algilez Phrase Book

This Phrase Book contains both a variety of phrases such that a tourist might need (e.g. travelling and booking into hotels etc) plus additional material for general conversations.

As well as the phrases themselves, the intention is to try and cover as many as possible of the grammatical and tense uses that are likely to regularly occur in the language.

Translations:

Like most translations, the Algilez version may appear to say something slightly different to the English version but this is really just a case of translating the meaning rather than the words themselves. Remember also that the different word order of Algilez will often mean that word by word translations won't make sense and that you will probably need to translate complete phrases or sentences.

Sometimes there are alternative translations. The fuller ones are included to help understand the full response, the shorter ones being perfectly acceptable if the context is clear. Sometimes verbs (or other grammatical functions) are not always necessary – Algilez is very flexible!

[Word in square brackets] are usually the unsaid words, often taken for granted in greetings or questions. They are shown to give the full grammatical information but can be omitted from Algilez in the same way as English.

E.g. [I wish you a] Good morning – [ME WAFEZ YU] Gud Mn.

Algilez Pronunciation:

Vowels:- 'r' as in far, 'v' as in fort, 'λ' as in cut, 'ε' as in bet, 'i' as in feel, 'o' as in pop, 'u' as in pool. Consonants: 'ç' as in church, 'ç' as in get, 'θ' as in three, 'j' as in ship, all others as in English. However it is best to listen to the sound files on the Algilez web site to hear the pronunciation. Please see www.algilez.com/Algilez Alphabet & Font.pdf

 Last week
 What time did you arrive
 What were you doing this time last year?
 How long will the sale last?
 Only three days.
 I'll be back in 5 days.
 Which months does it snow?
 From October to February.
 What year was this built?
 It was built in 1999
 What will you do during this weekend?
 What will you do the day after tomorrow?
 What did you do the week before last?
 I'll work for the next 5 days.
 It's been 2 years since I last saw you.

18d Talking about neighbours and friends

Do you know Mary?
 Sure. We've been friends since primary school.
 Really? I was introduced to her just last weekend.
 What is she doing now?
 She told me she wanted to start a company.
 Start a company? But I thought she wanted to become a teacher
 People are always changing, aren't they?
 Yes, you're right. After all, she is smart enough to go into business.
 But she doesn't have much experience.
 You two don't have much contact ?
 No, I only wrote her one letter this year.
 And she?
 She sent me a Christmas card last year.
 Oh, that's not good.
 Yes, we should keep in touch more.

 Just my shirt and jeans.
 You should have your suit cleaned and ironed.
 You'd better put on your jacket. It's cold outside.
 This blouse no longer fits me.
 My son has outgrown these trousers.
 These shoes are worn-out.
 I don't like wearing the uniform.
 Do you want to change before we go out?
 Your shoe lace is loose.
 You forgot to fasten the collar buttons.
 Take off your hat. It doesn't fit.
 Does my bum look big in this?
 No, it suits you.

21a Talking About The Past

He used to live in my neighbourhood.
 We have known each other for 6 years.
 It has been a long time since I last came here.
 Have you seen Mr. Smith recently?
 They've been working on this project since last year.
 I've been watching TV all night.
 The movie began as soon as we got there.
 When I arrived at the station, the train had already left.
 I thought he knew the time of the meeting.

I woke up at seven and got up right away.
She hurried to her office.
He had his breakfast on the way.
They were just on time.
I was 10 minutes late.

He'll go skiing if the weather permits.
I suppose I can finish the project next year.
I have no idea.
It's up to you.
They're considering buying a house.
Hi, Jack. What topics will you take this semester?
Hi, Lucy. I'll take French and Economics.
Will you be doing some part time work?
Yes, I'll apply to work at the library.
Good luck!

21f Possibilities which didn't happen

I would have had a much better holiday if I had stayed at home.
If I'd had enough money yesterday, I would have bought that camera.
Looking back on it, I think I shouldn't have given up so easily.
Had I taken a taxi, I wouldn't have been late.
Even if you had given him more money, he might not have paid off the debt.
I wish I had told him the truth.
I wish you hadn't cheated me.
If it had been fine, we'd have gone to the park.
Would he have seen you if you hadn't waved to him?
You should have studied much harder.
I had thought about arguing with the teacher about that, but I didn't have enough courage.
I had thought about living with my grandparents when my parents went abroad last year.
I would never have thought of it if you hadn't mentioned it.
